

HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHINA

Strengthening calls for accountability

27 June 2019, 12-1pm
Room XXVII, Palais des Nations

This side event will address the situation in Xinjiang, the crackdown on lawyers and the protests in Hong Kong, which all together illustrate structural problems in the country. It will also reiterate the call upon the Council to take urgent action to seek access, monitoring and reporting, and to hold China accountable.

Panelists

John Fisher, Human Rights Watch, Geneva Director

Sarah M. Brooks, International Service for Human Rights, Asia advocate

Arthur Moses SC, Law Council of Australia, President (video intervention)

Moderated by Claire Denman, CSW, Geneva representative
