

International Commission of Jurists

Canadian Section

Lawyers' Rights Watch Canada

The Right to Know Our Rights

When:
Friday, June 15, 2012
12:00 noon to 1:30 pm

Where:
Barristers' Lounge
Courthouse Library
Victoria, BC

International law obligations to ensure international human rights education and training

Event co-sponsored by LRWC and International Commission of Jurists (ICJ)

What does the newly adopted UN Declaration on Human Rights Education and Training mean for the legal profession in Canada? Catherine Morris will present findings of LRWC's report, The Right to Know Our Rights, which reviews Canada's – and BC's -- international law obligations to provide international human rights education and training. The report also surveys the availability of international human rights education in BC. CPD credits available for BC Lawyers